

Scott Hempling

A teacher, litigator, advisor and expert witness, Scott Hempling has assisted clients from all sectors in the electric industry. He has appeared before congressional committees, state commissions and state legislative committees; and addressed audiences throughout the United States and in Canada, Central America, Germany, India, Italy, Jamaica, Mexico, New Zealand and Nigeria. At Georgetown University Law Center, he teaches courses on public utility law and regulatory litigation. His Regulating Public Utility Performance: The Law of Market Structure, Pricing and Jurisdiction, published by the American Bar Association, has been described as a “comprehensive regulatory treatise [that] warrants comparison with Kahn and Phillips.” A companion volume will address the law of corporate structure, mergers and acquisitions. His Preside or Lead? The Attributes and Actions of Effective Regulators has been described as “matchless” and “timeless.” Hempling received a B.A. cum laude from Yale University in (1) Economics and Political Science and (2) Music, and a J.D. magna cum laude from Georgetown University Law Center.
